National Service Scheme

Concept note:

Ever since Independence there has been growing awareness of the desirability of involving students in national service. The introduction of NSS in 1969 is one of the answers to this invaluable need. Thus, NSS which started with 40,000 volunteers in 1969 now stands with a strength of more than 20 lakhs in the country. Peren Government College also participates in this national service with a NSS unit ever striving to live upto the ideals of National Service Scheme.

Motto: 'NOT ME BUT YOU'

The motto or watchword of the National Service Scheme is 'NOT ME BUT YOU'. This expresses the essence of democratic living and upholds the need for selfless service and appreciation of the other man's point of view and also to show consideration for fellow human beings. It underlies that the welfare of an individual is ultimately dependent on the welfare of society as a whole.

Goal: Education through Community Service and Community Service through Education.
